A portrait of Ray Anderson, the founder of Interface, smiling slightly. He is wearing a dark blazer over a plaid shirt. The background is a vibrant, colorful wall with vertical stripes of red, blue, and orange, and large, stylized letters in various colors.

“To be the first company that, by its deeds, shows the entire industrial world what Sustainability is in all its dimensions: people, process, product, place and profits – by 2020 – and in doing so we will become restorative through the power of influence.”
